

Incident Log

|           |      |
|-----------|------|
| NS Office | NSBD |
|-----------|------|

|                      |                   |                         |           |
|----------------------|-------------------|-------------------------|-----------|
| Incident Date        | 18-02-2025        | Incident Manager        |           |
| Incident Time        | 11:00 AM          | Incident Reference      | CESL00778 |
| Reported By          | Austin            | Incident Classification | Physical  |
| Reported To          | NS BD IT          | Escalated internally to | IT        |
| Date / Time Reported | 05-02-2025, 03:00 | Escalated externally to |           |

|                  |                                                                                                                    |
|------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Incident Summary | Something heavy fall upon the closed lid of the laptop and that causes screen break. Laptop : Lenovo Thinkpad L14. |
|------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

|                  |                                                                                                                |
|------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Systems affected | Apart from the Screen break others internal electronic could have been damaged (such as Camera, Antenna, etc). |
|------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

|       |                                 |
|-------|---------------------------------|
| Cause | Accidental ( as per user said ) |
|-------|---------------------------------|

|                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|-----------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Business impact | This laptop has been purchased Feb 2024 still more 4 years to complete its lifecycle. This incident would not cover under Lenovo warranty as because of physical damage, so cost will be charged. |
|-----------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

|                       |               |
|-----------------------|---------------|
| Date / Time Contained | Not contained |
|-----------------------|---------------|

|               |                                                                                      |
|---------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Actions Taken | BD IT taken the laptop and arrange to provide a temporary device to do the business. |
|---------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

|                |  |
|----------------|--|
| Lessons Learnt |  |
|----------------|--|

|                                                           |  |
|-----------------------------------------------------------|--|
| Other Information (log of calls made / conversations etc) |  |
|-----------------------------------------------------------|--|

|                    |  |              |        |
|--------------------|--|--------------|--------|
| Date / Time Closed |  | Submitted by | Raihan |
|--------------------|--|--------------|--------|